

Department of English
Annual Report
Academic year 2018-2019

Departmental Activities

Basic English Course: English department conducted a Basic English Course for the first-year students in the college throughout the academic year. Asst. Professor Santosh Kharat conducted this course successfully.

Guest Lecture: Prof. Keshav Borkar, head department of English, Ale College was invited on who guided the students on how to prepare for the examinations.

Group Discussion: Group discussions were conducted for the brainstorming among the students on the following topics: English communication and career opportunities, linguistics, understanding poetry, soft skills and career opportunities.

Test and Tutorial: Two tests and tutorials were conducted subject wise and class wise to prepare the students for the examination.

Students' seminar: To improve the communication skills and to boost the confidence of the students in their respective subject, students' seminars were conducted by all the teachers in the department.

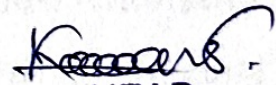

One Day Workshop: The special one-day workshops on SYBA/TYBA Compulsory English were conducted to help the students revise their syllabus of compulsory English and to teach them some important tips and techniques regarding examination.

Preliminary Examination: English department conducted preliminary examination for the students of SYBA/TYBA Compulsory English. The assessed answer sheets were given to the students to let them know their weakness and strengths.

Extra Classes for Repeaters: The departmental faculty conducted extra classes of Compulsory English for the repeater students fifteen days before the examination.

Library Visit: The departmental visit to library was organised on 27/07/2019 to help the students know the available books, reference books, encyclopaedias, dictionaries, journals, magazines, periodicals etc.

Use of ICT: English department tried its level best to provide ICT facilities to the students. You tube clips on understanding communication and syllabus based short stories and movies such as the selfish giant, animal farm, the old man and the sea etc, were shown to the students.

HEAD

Department of English
B.D.Kale Mahavidyalaya, Chodagaon
Tal Ambegaon, Dist. Solapur