Savitribai Phule Pune University,Pune

Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's

B.D.Kale Mahavidyalaya, Ghodegaon

Department of National Service Scheme (NSS)

Academic Year 2021-22

Regular Activity Report

==========

Teacher's Day Program (Date: September 5, 2021) :

Teacher's Day, a program was organized on September 5 by Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's B.D. Kale College, the Management of the college also honoured the teachers of the college for their excellence.

The program was presided over by the President of the Institution, Shri Suresh Sheth Kale. Other dignitaries in attendance included Adv. Sanjay Arvikar (Chairman, College Development Committee), Hon. Ajit Sheth Kale (Chairman, School Committee), Dr. Indrajit Jadhav (Principal), and Dr. Dnyaneshwar Walhekar (Vice-Principal). During the event, all teachers of the college were felicitated and honoured in recognition of their dedicated service.

National Service Scheme (NSS) Day (Date: September 24, 2021):

On the occasion of NSS Foundation Day, an online lecture was organized for the NSS volunteers on the significant topic "National Service Scheme and Today's Youth."

Prof. Dr. Shrikant Phulsundar (Head of Economics Department, Arts & Commerce College, Narayangaon, and NSS District Coordinator) served as the guest speaker. He provided valuable guidance regarding the duties and responsibilities of volunteers while working within the National Service Scheme.

The program was chaired by the Principal, Dr. Indrajit Jadhav, and was coordinated by the NSS Program Officer, Prof. Dr. Vallabh Karandikar. A total of 48 NSS volunteers from the college attended this online lecture.

E-Peek Pahani (E-Crop Survey) Workshop (Date: September 28, 2021) :

A workshop on E-Peek Pahani (Digital Crop Survey) was organized on September 28, 2021, by Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's B.D. Kale College, Ghodegaon, and the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit. Representing the Tehsil Office, Mr. R.R. Pandare(Talathi, Ghodegaon), Mr. Shivdatta Namdev Jagtap (Operator), and Mr. Mauli Ghodekar (Kotwal) were present as guests.

During the workshop, Hon. R.R. Pandare provided invaluable guidance to the students on several key aspects: How is the E-Peek Pahani conducted? What is the procedure? When should it be done? He also discussed the benefits of the digital survey, the registration process, and who is eligible to perform the entry.

Wildlife Week Program (Date: October 6, 2021):

On October 6, 2021, the NSS unit of B.D. Kale College organized a program to observe Wildlife Week.The event was attended by Hon. Kadam Saheb, Hon. Sampat Tandale, and Hon. Ashok Mate from the Forest Department. The program was presided over by the College Principal, Dr. Indrajit Jadhav. Vice-Principal Prof. Dr. Dnyaneshwar Walhekar, Student Welfare Officer Prof. Dr. Gulabrao Parkhe, and Prof. Dr. Natha Mokate (Dept. of History).participated in the programme.

Hon. Kadam Saheb shared specialized guidance on the importance of forests, the protection of wildlife, and the role of youth in forest development. Additionally, Mr. Sampat Tandale and Mr. Ashok Mate briefed the students on the background and objectives of Wildlife Week. In his presidential address, the Principal welcomed the forest department officials and emphasized the critical importance of preserving forests and wild animals.

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav & Majhi Vasundhara Programme:

(Dates: October 9 & 10, 2021)

Under the "Majhi Vasundhara" (My Earth) initiative and to commemorate the 75th Year of Indian Independence (Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav), a Swachh Bharat Abhiyan (Clean India Mission) was conducted on October 9 and 10, 2021.

A mass cleanliness drive was organized across the college campus. NSS volunteers contributed through "Shramdan" (voluntary labour) by removing unnecessary weeds and shrubs from the campus premises and thoroughly sweeping and cleaning the college playground.Additionally, a lecture emphasizing the importance of cleanliness was organized for the NSS volunteers. On this occasion, a tree plantation drive was conducted at Kalewadi and Darekarwadi. Furthermore, a conservation drive for previously planted trees was undertaken, which included the removal of weeds and unwanted growth around the saplings.

Cleanliness Drive at Adopted Village, Amondi (Date: October 24, 2021) :

On October 24, 2021, a joint cleanliness drive was organized at the adopted village of Amondi by Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's B.D. Kale College (NSS Unit and Student Development Board) in collaboration with the village administration. The drive focused on the village settlement area, the Zilla Parishad Primary School premises, and the school's kitchen garden.

The event was attended by Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav, Student Development Officer Prof. Gulabrao Parkhe, NSS Program Officer Prof. Dr. Vallabh Karandikar, Prof. Popatrao Mane, and Dr. Manik Borade. Hon. Nilesh Kale (Sarpanch, Amondi) and Shri Ram Phalke (Gram Panchayat Member) participated actively in this drive.

During this drive, students cleaned the main square, the area in front of the Amondi Gram Panchayat office, and the stretch from the Shiv Sena office to the main road. Additionally, the Zilla Parishad Primary School premises and its garden were cleared of weeds and debris.

This activity was organized under the "Swachh Bharat, Sundar Bharat" (Clean India, Beautiful India) mission, with a total of 30 volunteers .

Voter Registration and Awareness Programme (Date: November 22, 2021):

On November 22, 2021, Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's B.D. Kale College, Ghodegaon, and its National Service Scheme (NSS) unit organizeda Voter Registration Drive Following the theme of National Voters' Day, a Voter Registration Drive was held by the college students at the adopted village of Amondi, Students performed a Street Play based on Voter Awareness (Pathnatya) for the residents of Ghodegaon .

The programme was graced by the presence of Hon. Rama Joshi (Tehsildar, Ambegaon) and her entire administrative staff. Addressing the students during the event, Hon. Tehsildar Rama Joshi emphasized that it is mandatory for every student who has completed 18 years of age to register as a voter.

She further appealed to the students, noting that a special voter registration campaign was being conducted across Ambegaon Taluka from November 1 to November 30, and urged all eligible students to take advantage of this facility through the college.

College Principal Dr. I.B. Jadhav provided valuable guidance for the success of this programme. Additionally, Prof. S.L. Nevkar from the Political Science Department took the lead in the initiative, resulting in the successful registration of 181 students as new voters.Additionally, the volunteers of the National Service Scheme unit created voter awareness in Ghodegaon town through a street play (Pathnatya), chanting slogans like: "Come, oh come, let's go to vote... sisters, mothers, and aunts, let's go to vote."

Tree Conservation Program (Location: Adopted Village, Amondi) :

(Date: November 23, 2021)

A joint Tree Conservation Programme was successfully conducted on November 23, 2021, from 9:00 AM to 1:30 PM at the adopted village of Amondi. The programme was guided by Principal Dr. I.B. Jadhav and organized in coordination with the Amondi Gram Panchayat and Maharashtra Arogya Mandal, represented by Mr. Udaysingh Chaudhary Sir and Mr. Indore Sir.

The event was attended by the Sarpanch of Amondi, Mr. Nilesh Kale, Gram Panchayat member Mr. Ram Phalke, and Gram Sevika Yogita Dale. Principal Dr. I.B. Jadhav explained the vital importance of tree conservation and guided the volunteers on techniques to maintain the saplings.

During the program, NSS volunteers cleared weeds around 250 saplings of various sizes planted within the village and its outskirts. The volunteers created deep soil basins (bundles) around the trees, removed tree guards for maintenance, and then refitted them properly. In the concluding session, NSS Programme Officer Dr. V.S. Karandikar explained the objectives of NSS and the necessity of nature conservation. 35 NSS volunteers participated in this activity.

World AIDS Day Program(Date: December 1, 2021) :

World AIDS Day was observed at the college on December 1, 2021, under the chairmanship of Principal Dr. I.B. Jadhav.NSS Program Officer Dr. V.S. Karandikar delivered the introductory speech, explaining the purpose of the day, awareness regarding the disease, its causes, preventive measures, and the precautions the youth must take.

In his presidential address, Dr. I.B. Jadhav stated that if college students understand the causes and take proper precautions in their daily lives, they can build a strong generation and eventually eradicate AIDS from the country. He reassured students that while AIDS is a serious condition, there is no need for fear if one understands the preventive measures.

Prof. S.D. Doke (Head, BCA Dept.), Prof. Srishti Bohade, and all NSS volunteers were present. Awareness videos and posters were presented during the event. A total of 110 volunteers participated.

Human Rights Day(Date: December 10, 2021) :

Special Lecture: Human Rights, Duties, and Society

A special lecture on Human Rights Day was organized by the NSS and Political Science Departments. Prof. Dr. N.R. Mokate (Head, History Dept.) served as the keynote speaker.

Dr. Mokate guided students on the Constitution and the rights and duties included for all citizens. He discussed the right to freedom, the right to life, the right to education, the right to move freely in society, and the right to freedom of thought. He also elaborated on the history and background of why Human Rights Day is celebrated.

Principal Dr. I.B. Jadhav, as the chairperson, remarked that such celebrations help people recognize their rights and make them aware of their duties toward society. He praised the NSS department for consistently organizing programs for all special commemorative days.

The introductory speech was given by Dr. V.S. Karandikar (Head, English Dept. and NSS Program Officer). The event was attended by Prof. Sunil Nevkar, Prof. Sachin Ghaytadke, and Prof. Pravin Pardhi.

Chikungunya & Dengue Prevention Awareness Lecture:

(Location: Adopted Village, Amondi) :

(Date: December 28, 2021):

On December 28, 2021, at 7:00 PM, an awareness lecture on the prevention of Chikungunya and Dengue was organized at the adopted village of Amondi by B.D. Kale College and its NSS unit.On this occasion, Dr. P.D. Kale (Ghodegaon) provided detailed information to the attendees regarding the causes of Chikungunya and Dengue, the care to be taken during these illnesses, and the various preventive measures that should be implemented.

The programme was presided over by the College Principal, Dr. I.B. Jadhav. Other attendees included the Sarpanch of Amondi, Mr. Nilesh Kale, Gram Panchayat member Mr. Ram Phalke, Gram Sevika Yogita Dale, and the village residents.During his address, Dr. P.D. Kale offered profound guidance to the villagers on the importance of health and how to protect oneself from all types of diseases.In his presidential remarks, Principal Dr. I.B. Jadhav stated that the college consistently organizes such special initiatives in its adopted villages. He expressed confidence that this health awareness lecture would be highly beneficial to the residents of Amondi, especially since many had recently faced challenges with Chikungunya and Dengue.

In the concluding session, NSS Program Officer Dr. V.S. Karandikar explained the health-related initiatives of the National Service Scheme to the students and villagers. The programmewas attended by student volunteers living in Amondi as well as the local residents.

Darekarwadi Tree Conservation Report(Date: January 4, 2022) :

A Tree Conservation Programme was organized at the Darekarwadi Nursery through the joint efforts of B.D. Kale College (NSS Unit), the Forest Department of Ghodegaon, Kalewadi, and Darekarwadi.

The event was attended by officials from the Ghodegaon Forest Department, residents of Darekarwadi, and College Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav. A total of 40 NSS volunteers participated in this conservation drive, contributing their labour to the nursery's upkeep.

Blood Group and Haemoglobin Check-up Camp (Date: January 7, 2022) :

A Blood Group and Haemoglobin Check-up Camp was organized for the students of the college by Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal’s B.D. Kale College, Ghodegaon, in collaboration with the Alumni Association, National Service Scheme (NSS), and the Student Development Board. During this camp, a total of 190 students successfully underwent blood group and haemoglobin testing.

Blood Donation Awareness Online Lecture (Date: January 24, 2022) :

On January 24, 2022, an online lecture series on blood donation awareness was organized for all volunteers by B.D. Kale College, Ghodegaon, the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit, and the BloodConnect organization.The primary objective of this online lecture and awareness session was to discuss how to systematically ensure the availability of blood for critically ill patients during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, explore efforts to meet this demand, and prepare a directory of volunteer blood donors.

During the session, Mr. Yash Surana, a volunteer from BloodConnect Foundation, provided specialized guidance to the NSS volunteers. He explained the differences between various blood groups, specifically identifying universal donors and universal recipients. Furthermore, he discussed how a healthy individual can donate blood, the precautions to be taken, and strategies to increase the percentage of female blood donors. This was followed by an open interactive session where he answered the volunteers' queries. NSS volunteers attended this session online via Google Meet.

Voter Registration, Awareness Programme& Cleanliness Drive(Date: January 25, 2022):

On January 25, 2022, to coincide with National Voters' Day, a joint initiative was organized by Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's B.D. Kale College and its NSS unit at the adopted village of Amondi. The program included a Voter Registration Drive for students and a Voter Awareness Street Play (Pathnatya) for the residents of Ghodegaon. Additionally, a cleanliness drive was conducted within the college campus.

The event was attended by Hon. Rama Joshi (Tehsildar, Ambegaon) and her entire staff. It was noted that while a special voter registration campaign was held across Ambegaon Taluka from November 1 to November 30, this continued effort aimed to ensure no eligible student was left behind.She appealed to all students to take advantage of this voter registration drive through the college.

Additionally, the NSS volunteers conducted a voter awareness campaign throughout Ghodegaon town using a street play (Pathnatya), chanting slogans such as: "Come, oh come, let's go to vote... sisters, mothers, and aunts, let's go to vote!"

Following this, a cleanliness drive was held on the college campus. During this session, volunteers swept and cleaned the back area of the college and removed unwanted weeds. A total of 122 volunteers participated in this programme.

The entire event was coordinated by NSS Program Officer Dr. V.S. Karandikar, with planning support from Prof. Dr. M.U. Borhade and Prof. P.M. Mane.

Pre-Camp Planning Meeting (Date: February 17, 2022) :

A Special Residential Labor Sanskar Camp (Shram-Sanskar Shibir) was scheduled to be held at the adopted village of Amondi from February 21, 2022, to February 27, 2022, organized jointly by the NSS unit of B.D. Kale College and the Amondi Gram Panchayat. A pre-camp planning meeting was held on February 17, 2022, at 10:00 AM.

During this meeting, students were briefed on the various activities planned for the camp. Instructions were given regarding the necessary preparations students should make before arriving. Additionally, indemnity bonds and parental consent forms were collected from the participants. The meeting was presided over by Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav. Program Officers Prof. Dr. Vallabh Karandikar, Prof. Popatrao Mane, and Dr. Manik Borade guided the students. A total of 30 volunteers attended this planning session.

Darekarwadi Tree Conservation Report (Date: February 18, 2022) :

A Tree Conservation Program was organized at the Darekarwadi Nursery by B.D. Kale College (NSS Unit) and the Forest Department of Ghodegaon, Kalewadi, and Darekarwadi. The event was attended by officials from the Ghodegaon Forest Department, local residents of Darekarwadi, and Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav.

A total of 40 NSS volunteers participated in this program. The volunteers worked on creating soil basins (bunding) around the trees, watering the plants, and removing unnecessary weeds from the surrounding areas to ensure healthy growth.

Special NSSShram-Sanskar Camp(Date: 21 February 2022 to 27 February 2022):

NSS department of B.D. Kale Mahavidyalaya, Ghodegaon, along with the Gram Panchayat Amondi, conducted a Special Labor Sanskar Camp in Amondi village from 21 February 2022 to 27 February 2022.

Guidance for the planning of the Special NSS Sanskar Camp was provided by the College Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav, while the coordination, planning, and management of the camp were carried out by Program Officers Dr. Vallabh Karandikar, Prof. Popatrao Mane, and Dr. Manik Borhade.

International Women's Day One-Day Workshop(Date: 8 March 2022) :

On 8 March 2022, International Women's Day was celebrated at the college by National Service Scheme and Student Development. On the occasion of this International Women's Day, a one-day workshop was organised in the college.

The inauguration of this workshop was performed at the hands of Hon. Mrs. Bhagyashree Bhor Padwal (Pune Rural Police). At the time of inauguration, Hon. Sureshshet Kale (President of Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal), Adv. Sanjay Arvikar (Chairman of B.D. Kale College Development Committee), Hon. Shivdas Kale (Treasurer of Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal), Hon. Ajitshet Kale (Chairman of New English Medium School), the President of this programme Mrs. Mohini Khedkar (Principal of Janata Vidya Mandir and Junior College, Ghodegaon), College Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav, Vice-Principal Prof. Dr. Dnyaneshwar Walhekar, Student Development Board Officer Dr. Gulabrao Parkhe, Dr. Changuna Kadam, National Service Scheme Programme Officers Prof. Dr. Vallabh Karandikar, Prof. Popatrao Mane, Dr. Manik Borhade, and all the women professors of the college were present. The inauguration of the programme was completed by the lighting of the lamp and worshiping the image of Saraswati at the hands of the chief dignitaries.

While expressing inaugural thoughts on the occasion of this one-day workshop and delivering the first lecture, Hon. Mrs. Bhagyashree Bhor Padwal (Pune Rural Police) gave invaluable guidance to the female students on the subject of "Women's Safety and Martial Arts." During her guidance, she mentioned that while developing their personality holistically, students should pay attention to their physical and mental health and must learn the art of martial arts for self-defence. Along with this, she addressed the female students regarding how to keep themselves safe in emergency situations and what measures can be taken for it. In addition to this, she provided invaluable guidance on what opportunities are available to enter the police field and how to obtain them.

The second lecture of the one-day workshop was delivered by Hon. Mrs. Rupali Pawar (Police Sub-Inspector, Manchar). She provided invaluable guidance to the female students on the subject of the Nirbhaya Pathak (Squad) and Women's Protection.

During the third lecture of the workshop, Prof. Dr. Changuna Kadam (Assistant Professor, Department of History) provided a highly scholarly and valuable session on Women's Empowerment. She gave in-depth information regarding the stages through which women's empowerment has evolved from historical times to the present day, what exactly women's empowerment means, and how it is the need of the hour.

In the fourth lecture of the one-day workshop, Martial Arts trainer Mr. Jayesh Thorat provided guidance along with practical demonstrations on how female students can protect themselves. Hon. Jayesh Thorat gave detailed guidance on how to make precise efforts to save oneself during sudden attacks and how to maintain physical fitness for the same.

While expressing presidential thoughts for the programme, Hon. Mrs. Mohini Khedkar (Principal, Janata Vidya Mandir and Junior College, Ghodegaon) guided the students on how to adapt to current changes and what efforts can be made to establish oneself as an empowered woman.

On the occasion of the conclusion, College Principal Dr. Indrajit Jadhav expressed his concluding remarks. During this, he guided the students on how to maintain self-security, health security, social security, and educational security, and how to build one's personality through them. He also appreciated both the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Student Development Board for implementing this commendable initiative of a one-day workshop on the occasion of International Women's Day.

The unveiling of the college's "Yuva Vyaspeeth" wallpaper (bulletin board) on the occasion of International Women's Day was completed in the presence of Chief Guest Mrs. Bhagyashree Bhor Padwal (Pune Rural Police), Programme Chairperson Mrs. Mohini Khedkar (Principal, Janata Vidya Mandir and Junior College, Ghodegaon), and dignitaries of the institution. In this International Women's Day special wallpaper, illustrated descriptions of world-renowned women were featured, including Prof. Sarah Gilbert, Sushmita Mohanty, Maria Ressa, P.V. Sindhu, Rahibai Popere, Dr. Safa Kumari (Syria), Shana Thanda (Disability Specialist), Vandana Shiva, Garima Safe, and Natasha Noel (Yoga Expert). The collection was coordinated by Prof. Dr. Changuna Kadam.

Program News Links:

1. AaplaAwaj -

https://aaplaawajnews.com/2022/11466/

2. Samarth Bharat -

https://www.samarthbharatnews.page/2022/03/blog-post 96.html

Guidance Lecture on Facing Online Examinations - (Date: 11 March 2022) :

Under the joint auspices of Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal's B.D. Kale College, Ghodegaon, and the National Service Scheme (NSS) department, Student Development Board, as well as the Examination Department, a valuable lecture by Prof. Akshay Bale was organized for all college students on the subject of "Facing Online Examinations."

During this lecture, Prof. Akshay Bale provided invaluable guidance regarding how students should open their student profile, how to search for the User ID and Password for the exam, how to view one's personal timetable using the PRN number and mobile number, how to set the front camera, how to give the paper within the exam time so it completes and submits successfully, and how to file an online complaint if there are issues connecting or if one is unable to connect to the paper.

World Consumer Day(Date: 15 March 2022):

On 15 March 2022, World Consumer Day was organized for all college students by NSS department of B.D. Kale College, Ghodegaon. On the occasion of Consumer Day, the President of the Taluka Grahak Panchayat, Mr. Ashok Mavkar, and Executive Member Mr. Nitin Mindhe were present. The programme was presided over by the College Principal, Dr. Indrajit Jadhav. While guiding the students, Mr. Nitin Mindhe briefed them on the rights and duties of consumers. He also guided the students on how to stay away from deceptive advertisements and where to seek redressal in case of fraud.

Along with this, Mr. Ashok Mavkar provided valuable guidance on how the Grahak Panchayat functions and how it ensures justice for consumers if they are cheated. 170 volunteers of the college were present for this program.

Participation in Various Camps:

The participation of various students from the National Service Scheme (NSS) department in different camps is as follows:

Sr. No.	Name of the Student	Participation / Selection
1	1.Yewale Sonal 2. Kale Ashlesha	Selection for NSS Pre-Republic Day (Pre-RD) Parade
2	1. Walkoli Aarti 2. Kale Saurabh	Gender Sensitization Workshop
3	1.Deshmukh Tanvi 2. Vidhate Shweta	Value-based Labor Sanskar Camp (Mulyashikshan Shram-Sanskar Shibir) held under "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" and "Majhi Vasundhara" initiative.
4	1.Bhagwat Gayatri 2.Shejwal Pratiksha 3. Talekar Kirti 4. Yewale Sakshi	District Level One-Day Water Literacy Workshop, Narayangaon College.

Guidance for all these activities was provided by the College Principal, Dr. I. B. Jadhav. The coordination and planning of the programmes were carried out by National Service Scheme Officer Dr. V. S. Karandikar, Prof. Dr. M. U. Borhade, and Prof. P. M. Mane.

Programme Officer
National Service Scheme (NSS)
B.D.Kale Mahavidyalaya,Ghodegaon
Tal.Ambegaon,Dist.Pune

B.D. KALE MAHAVIDYALAYA Code No 196 GHODEGAON

PRINCIPAL
B. D. Kale Mahavidyalaya
Ghodegaon. Dist.Pune

Ambegaon Taluka Vidya Vikas Mandal
Ghodegaon, Tal. Ambegaon, Dist. Pune.